Baxter-Wright Vows Spoken In Lovely Evening Ceremony

In a ceremony of beauty on Saturday, January 4, at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening in the South-east Baptist Church, Miss Nellie Ann Wright became the bride of Everett Linn Baxter. The Rev. P. C. Gantt performed the impressive ceremony.

Mr. Baxter is a graduate of Mooreville Senior High School and Barber College in Winston-Salem. He is employed at Center Barber Shop, Mooreville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. George A. Wright of 310 East Mills avenue, Mooreville and the late Mr. Wright. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Baxter of 327 Institute Street, Mooreville.

The wedding vows were spoken in a lovely setting of numerous white gladioli and chrysanthemums completed the wedding scene.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and appointed with an arrangement of white snapdragons and button mums, flanked on either side by candleholders holding lighted tapers. The four-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and baked by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Baxter, was placed at one end of the table and the crystal punch service was at the opposite end of the table. Composites held nuts and minis.

After the bride and bridegroom cut the traditional first slice of wedding cake, Mrs. Wallace Lapinski of Tampa, Florida, aunt of the bridegroom, completed the serving of the cake. Mrs. Wade Robertson presided at the punch bowl.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Alton Bryant, the bride wore a long gown of lace over a full fashioned with a fitted bodice and long lace sleeves. The skirt was ball shape and the satin train scalloped with lace, was caught at the waistline in the back with a bow of white material. A pearl crown held her bouffant veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses. Her only attendant was a single strand of pearls, a white street-length dress styled with a bell shaped skirt and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Doris Jean Wright, Mrs. Ann Ferguson of Lancaster, S. C. They wore dresses of various colors with matching headpieces.

Little Miss Vanessa Ann Winston of North Wilkesboro, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Master Freddie Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rogers of Mooreville, was ring bearer. The bridegroom was wearing a tuxedo. The bride's father served as best man and waiter. Jerry Rogers, cousin of the bridegroom, was the officiating minister. The bride's mother wore an off-white wool dress with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore an off-white wool dress with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Following the ceremony, the bride couple, their parents and attendants received in the vestibule of the church.

After a wedding trip to Daytona Beach, Florida, the couple will make their home in the Corrier Grange Community, Mooreville.

Mrs. Baxter is a 1961 graduate of Mooreville Senior High School and also a graduate of Southeastern Beauty College, Charlotte. She is self-employed at BeautyBama Beauty Salon in Statesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Anthony left Monday night for a week's vacation at Clearwater, Florida.

Walter Gold has resumed his studies at Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem, after spending the holiday season with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gold, at their home on Carpenter avenue.
